Ike Says U. S. Will Not Fight a Ground War

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower said today the United States has no intention of fighting a ground war in Europe.

At a news conference, however, he declined to say flatly that nuclear weapons would be used by American forces in the event the Soviets start shooting.

He said firmly the United States will do whatever needs to be done to protect its rights and responsibilities in West Berlin.

This government, he said, will never back up in the face of Soviet pressure there.

At the same time he said the free world is not going to become hysterical and go off half-cocked over the Berlin crisis.

Eisenhower said he believes the American public is more soberly aware of dangers in the Berlin situation than a lot of people around Washington.

A reporter had asked the President if he feels that the people recognize the dangers in Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's demand for the withdrawal of Allied troops from Berlin.

Bulletin

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate today passed a four-year extension of the pentelime draft and other related military manpower programs.

Employment, Unemployment Rise Slightly

WASHINGTON (AP)—Both employment and unemployment rose slightly between January and February, but so little as to be practically unchanged.

The government reported employment in February at 62,722,000, up 16,000 from January. It calculated unemployment at 4,749,000, up 25,000. These changes are so small as to be within the realm of possible error.

Compared with February a year ago employment is up 734,000 and unemployment is down by 424,000. Between January and February last year employment rose by 428,000 while unemployment rose by 679,000.

In reporting relatively no change in last month's job picture, the joint report of the Commerce and Labor Departments said:

"This stability marked the usual seasonal pause between the heavy winter contraction in employment and the normal spring expansion in economic activity."

The seasonally adjusted ratio of unemployment to the total work force remained at 6.1 per cent, the same level prevailing since November.

Employment and unemployment can both increase at the same time because the total labor force does not remain constant. There is for instance a constant flow of younger people into the job-hunting group.

Denies ADA Attacked the High Court

PITTSBURGH, Pa. (AP)—Ross L. Malone, president of the American Bar Ass'n today denied "wholly unjustified and contrary to fact" charges that the lawyers' group adopted resolutions attacking the U.S. Supreme Court.

Malone said resolutions approved by the association's House of Delegates in Chicago last month were an expression of concern as to the threat of communism to our internal security and a request for legislation in five specific areas to "strengthen our internal security by remedying failures in legislation which was pointed out in Supreme Court decisions."

He also said the resolutions, read objectively, are a "recognition of the position of the Supreme Court of the United States as the final guardian of our individual liberties, and of the obligation of the bar to defend the courts."

Malone, in a prepared speech, told delegates to the three-day Ohio Valley regional conference of the American Bar Ass'n. that a "terrific impression was created in many parts of the country as to the implications of the action of the House of Delegates."

About 1,500 lawyers from Pennsylvania, Ohio, West Virginia and parts of New York and Maryland are attending the conference.

Gen. Marshall Goes to Another Hospital

WASHINGTON (AP)—Gen. George C. Marshall, who has been seriously ill in the Army hospital at Ft. Bragg, N.C., was flown today to the Walter Reed Army Medical Center here. The Army said that the transfer was possible because of improvement in Marshall's condition. Marshall was taken from his home in North Carolina to the Ft. Bragg hospital after a second stroke.

Rogers Seeking Clear Authority in School Cases

WASHINGTON (AP)—Atty. Gen. William P. Rogers today urged Congress to give the federal government clear authority to deal with mob violence in school desegregation cases.

Rogers was before a House Judiciary subcommittee to detail the administration's new civil rights program. He appeared to be replying to some criticism that no attempt was made at the federal prosecution of those engaging in violence in Little Rock, Ark., at Central High School in 1957.

He said the new legislative proposals would give federal officers specific authority to make arrests on the spot of persons who created disturbances around schoolhouses, and interfered with a valid integration order.

The offense, under the bill, could be punished by two years imprisonment, $10,000 fine or both.

Rogers said that force or threats of force in school cases constitute a challenge to the rule of law which must be met fairly and unequivocally.

U. S. Sharply Curbs Coal, Oil Imports

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government, seeking to bolster the nation's domestic oil and coal industries, invoked sweeping mandatory curbs today on imports of foreign crude oil.

Similar curbs also go into effect April 1 on imports of gasoline and other finished petroleum products.

President Eisenhower ordered the new import controls Tuesday, saying he acted in the interest of national security.

Eisenhower's proclamation, advocated for some time by domestic oil and gas producers, is expected to reduce crude oil imports by about 15 per cent east of the Rocky Mountains.

There was no immediate indication what effect the new controls might have on domestic prices.

In a statement accompanying the proclamation, Eisenhower indicated the government will watch to see whether consumers are hurt from the curbs in foreign supplies.

Discussing the new order with reporters, Navy Capt. Matthew Carson Jr., administrator of the oil import program, said he didn't expect the restrictions to result in price increases.

In addition to crude oil, mandatory curbs went into effect today on unfinished petroleum products. The new curbs replace a voluntary program which has been in operation since mid-1957.

Eisenhower's order was promptly acclaimed by oil and coal state members of Congress. Some questioned, however, whether the new controls would cut imports far enough.

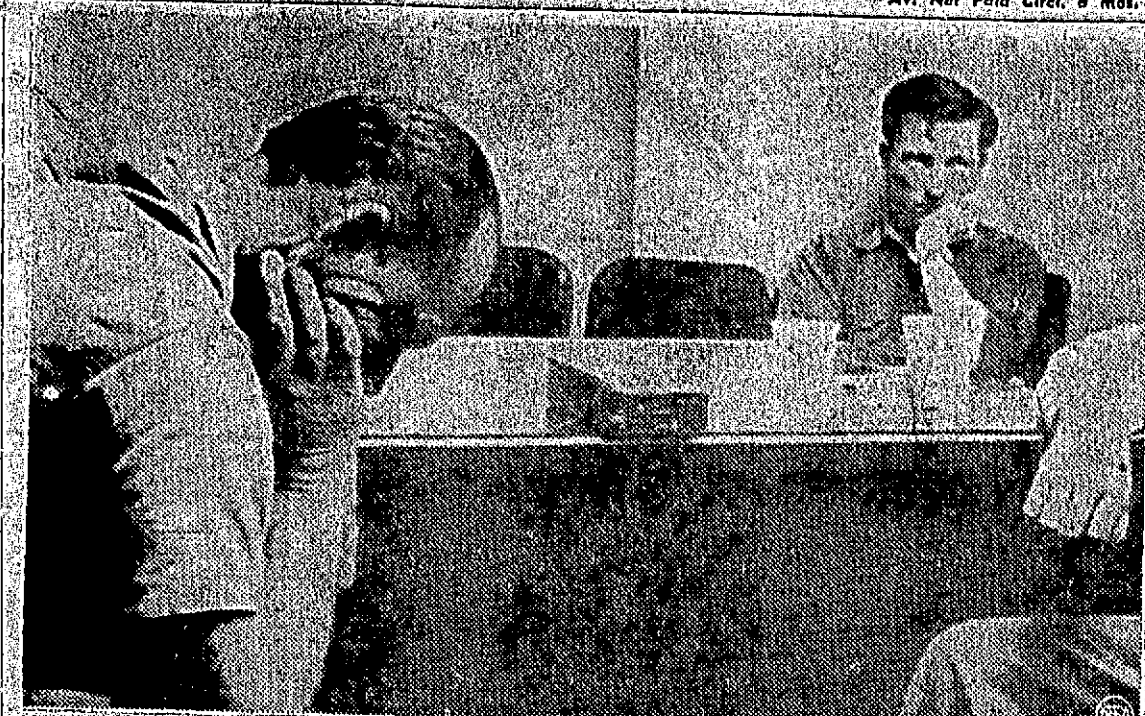

There also was a big question what effect the curbs will have on U.S. relations with Canada, Venezuela and the Mideast, the principal sources of oil shipped to this country.

In a major surprise, Eisenhower included residual fuel oil on the long list of controlled products. This had been argued by the nation's depressed bituminous industry which complains that residual oil is replacing soft coal as an industrial fuel in the East. But the residual curbs came as a blow to New England congressmen. They contended it would increase costs for their area's manufacturers.

Chancellor Dies at Pine Bluff

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP)—Chancellor Pat H. Mullis, who had held that office less than three months, died suddenly of a heart attack today. He was 49. Mullis was stricken at the Jefferson County Court House. He was taken to a hospital, where he died shortly after arrival. Mullis was a former prosecuting attorney here. He was holding that office when he made an unsuccessful race for Congress against Rep. W. F. Norvell of Monticello in 1956.

Last year he was elected chancellor to fill the position once held by Chief Justice Carleton Harris of the Arkansas Supreme Court. He took office last Jan. 1, succeeding Jay Morrison of Stuttgart, who served out Harris' unexpired term under a gubernatorial appointment. He presided over the Fourth Chancery District, which includes the counties of Jefferson, Arkansas, Cleveland and Lincoln. Mullis was a native of Drew County. Survivors include his widow.

Bills to Curb Highway Ads Dies in House

By JOHN R. STARR

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas House today killed two bills designed to regulate highway advertising by recalling them from the Senate.

With only two days remaining in the 1959 session, the bills had virtually no chance of clearing the Legislature.

Jefferson Rep. Knox Nelson made the motion to recall, saying the state Highway Commission opposed the bills.

Woodruff Rep. Jack Oakes promptly launched a filibuster in favor of the measures. He talked about 15 minutes and then yielded the floor, although he could have talked the motion to death.

"These are good bills and should become law," Oakes said, "but I'm going to give this House another chance to vote on them."

One measure would prohibit all advertising within 600 feet of federal interstate highways. The second would permit the Highway Department to control advertising along other roads.

During Oakes' filibuster, Nelson shouted:

"Tell them where those bills came from. Jack. They're from the AIDC (Arkansas Industrial Development Commission)."

Nelson said a postcard campaign for the bills did not reflect the sentiments of the people and that no other state had enacted laws of this kind.

Oakes challenged the truth of Nelson's statements but was not permitted to speak again.

Kent of Palmers; four brothers, Alfred, Tom and Joe Hollis of Palmers; and Andrew Hollis of Abilene, Texas.

Bus Jumps Walk, Two Persons Die

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A bustling intersection in downtown Pittsburgh became a scene of horror Tuesday as a commuter bus jumped a sidewalk and plowed into a crowd during the evening rush hour.

Two persons were killed and 16 were injured, four seriously.

The Brentwood Motor Coach Co. bus was approaching a knot of waiting passengers at Smithfield Street and Forbes Avenue when it veered out of control. The driver said his air brakes failed.

The bus climbed the curb, cut down a fire alarm pole and a street light then tore into the crowd and nosed against a plate glass display window of Kaufmann's department store.

Many of the screaming victims were flung through the window. Several others were trapped under the bus.

One of those killed was Sam Hood, 40, a reporter and art critic for the Pittsburgh Press.

Also killed was Mrs. Sally Flynn Strail, 54, of nearby Baldwin. She was head cashier at the Roosevelt Hotel.

The stunned bus driver, Jay Lape, was treated for minor injuries and released on $10,000 bond pending an inquest on a technical charge of manslaughter.

Lape was so distraught he was re-admitted to a hospital shortly after midnight suffering shock.

River Parkway Urged by the House

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas House today urged the state Highway Department to seek location of a proposed Mississippi River Parkway in Arkansas.

Rep. W. L. Ward, one of the authors of a resolution directed to the department, said the Tennessee Legislature had taken steps to get the proposed parkway located in that state.

"This parkway should be located in Arkansas, probably a long Crowley's Ridge," Ward said. Crowley's Ridge is an elevation that parallels the Mississippi River about 40 miles to the west.

Ward said the parkway should include Arkansas at the Missouri line and cross the river into Mississippi across the Helena Bridge, now under construction.

The Mississippi River Parkway, first proposed 20 years ago, would be a key north-south route. The resolution, co-sponsored by Reps. O. P. Hannum and Clark Kinney, both of St. Francis County, and Marcus J. Howell of Phillips County, directs the state Highway Commission to propose possible Arkansas routes for the parkway to the U.S. Bureau of Public Roads.

Appointment of Mrs. Luce Is Questioned

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Foreign Relations Committee may delay until after Easter approval of Clare Boothe Luce's nomination as ambassador to Brazil.

Sen. Russell B. Long (D-La.) said that some of the members want to allow time for a "cooling-off" period before acting. He said some members are concerned because of the publication in the Latin American edition of Time magazine of an article blamed for selling off anti-American rioting in Bolivia. Mrs. Luce's husband, Henry R. Luce, is editor-in-chief of Time.

Sen. Wayne Morse (D-Ore.), chairman of the subcommittee on Latin American affairs, said he got the committee to postpone action "for the time being until the nomination can be given further consideration."

Long said he was not disposed to oppose confirmation as "Mrs. Luce is able and talented, and there is no objection to her on the part of the Brazilian government."

"But I think she ought to use some of her diplomacy on her husband's magazine," he said.

Congressman May Collect Porch Storage

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Indiana congressman who punts his front porch to himself for $100 a month said today he thinks the government also owes him about $100 for storing mail on the porch.

"They've been storing mail on my front porch for the past nine years," Rep. Randall S. Harmon (D-Ind.) said. "and I think I ought to be paid for it."

He said he plans to discuss this with Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield later this week.

"I'm strictly noncommittal," Harmon added. "If I did get a cut, I'd give it to the Shriner's Crippled Children's Hospitals. That's a great cause."

Harmon said that years ago trucks began dumping sacks of mail on his porch in Muncie, Ind., for the route carrier to sort and handle. This still goes on, he said.

"The ought to be worth $200 a year. That's what they pay for a subpostoffice back home," he said.

Harmon, a tool and die worker, was elected to Congress last fall. It developed last month that he had put his wife on his payroll and was drawing $100 a month from the government as rent for the glassed-in front porch she uses as an office in Muncie.

President Says More Defense to Cost More

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower said today those advocating greater defense spending that he believes the nation's demand higher taxes.

And, at a news conference, Eisenhower repeated several times a defense program is adequate to deal with the situation.

With much emphasis, he cautioned against letting the Soviet Union lure the Western Allies into a ground war in Europe.

Such a war would be a miscalculation on the part of the Allies in the light of Russia's great manpower reserves, he said.

Eisenhower said a new defense program is adequate to deal with the situation. He said he can't see anything small about an Army of 870,000 men, and that he doesn't see anything in the planned reduction to get hysterical about.

In response to a question, Eisenhower said he was not ruling out the possibility of a nuclear war over Berlin.

He went on to say, however, that he does not see how such a war would free anyone—apparently meaning he doesn't see how anyone could come out a winner.

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower stood pat today on his defense program despite crippling Democratic demands for more men and missiles.

In advance of a White House news conference, Eisenhower was quoted as determined to hold military spending to the 41-billion-dollar level he set in his budget for the year beginning July 1.

Sen. Leverett Saltonstall (R-Mass.), a member of the Senate Preparedness subcommittee, said Eisenhower had told party leaders at a White House conference Tuesday that attempts to spend more would result in waste.

"The President said that the defense program had been planned and balanced carefully and that any more money put into it would be wasted," Saltonstall said.

Leading Democrats made it clear they don't agree. They called the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

The Jaycees plan to make this one of the best Easter egg hunts ever held for the children of Hope.

Anti-integration Bills Have No Senate Trouble

By JACK MARTIN

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Two more anti-integration proposals were approved quickly by the Arkansas Senate today.

The first measure provides for the channeling of public education funds to students who refuse to attend an integrated school and allows the funds to follow them to another school.

A pupil placement measure patterned after an Alabama law was approved on the heels of the first vote.

Both bills passed unanimously. There was no debate.

The Senate also approved a proposed constitutional amendment to raise the salaries of state constitutional officials.

Sen. Jerry Sererton of Hazen spoke for the student aid bill. He said it was an administration measure and expanded a provision of Act 1059, that provision said a student would not be required to attend an integrated school; the new bill says the student does not have to go to an integrated school in order to get a free public education.

The pupil placement measure specifies that local school boards shall exercise "quasi-judicial function" with respect to hearings on the assignment of pupils. It gives boards full authority for the assignment or transfer of pupils. The boards may delegate this authority to school superintendents.

Such assignments, the bill states, may be based on a number of factors, including the possibility of "social disturbance, and the wishes of the pupils' parents."

The proposed constitutional amendment also was approved unanimously, and it would raise the salaries of the governor from $10,000 to $20,000 annually and the lieutenant governor from $2,500 to $5,000.

The measure sets a salary of $10,000 for the secretary of state, state treasurer, auditor

Relations of Iran, Nasser at New Low

By TOM MASTERSON

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP)—Relations between Iran and President Nasser's United Arab Republic sank to a new low today as a result of the revolt against the left-leaning Iraqi government.

The Baghdad government claimed it had smashed the revolt against Premier Abdel Karim Kassem and reports spread that some of the rebel army officers were trying to escape across the Syrian border. Other reports said fighting was still going on, apparently by desperate holdouts trying to flee the country.

The U.A.R.'s semi-official Middle East News Agency charged that Iraqi planes had shot up a Syrian border village. The agency also reported that Iraqi planes had strafed several Iraqi villages in the Mosul area near the border.

Kassem meanwhile expelled 10 U.A.R. diplomats assigned to the Baghdad embassy, declaring they were a menace to public safety.

Baghdad correspondent of the Middle East News Agency also was ordered out.

Nine of the ousted diplomats arrived in Cairo and reported that the Baghdad government apparedly was still digging in for a fight.

First reports of the revolt made clear that the rebellious army officers wanted to swing the Iraqi government toward Nasser and opposed the growing influence of the Iraqi communists on Kassem.

Military governor Ahmed Salah el Abdi in a broadcast over Baghdad radio blamed a "foreign power" for sparking the rebellion. It was plain he referred to the U.A.R. Street demonstrations staged in support of Kassem turned into anti-Egyptian rallies.

Nasser's news agency accused Iraq of taking "provocative measures against the U.A.R." As yet, however, there was no retaliatory expulsion of Iraqi diplomats from Cairo.

Details of the army revolt were still sketchy.

Diplomatic informants said the rebels had pulled out of the northern oil center of Mosul where Col. Abdel Wahhab Shawaf and a group of pro-Nasser followers launched the rebellion Sunday.

A terse report from Baghdad radio indicated the government had regained control of Mosul sometime Tuesday. It said the military governor of Iraq had clamped a curfew on the northern city.

daily was still digging in for a fight.

First reports of the revolt made clear that the rebellious army officers wanted to swing the Iraqi government toward Nasser and opposed the growing influence of the Iraqi communists on Kassem.

Military governor Ahmed Salah el Abdi in a broadcast over Baghdad radio blamed a "foreign power" for sparking the rebellion. It was plain he referred to the U.A.R. Street demonstrations staged in support of Kassem turned into anti-Egyptian rallies.

Nasser's news agency accused Iraq of taking "provocative measures against the U.A.R." As yet, however, there was no retaliatory expulsion of Iraqi diplomats from Cairo.

Details of the army revolt were still sketchy.

Diplomatic informants said the rebels had pulled out of the northern oil center of Mosul where Col. Abdel Wahhab Shawaf and a group of pro-Nasser followers launched the rebellion Sunday.

A terse report from Baghdad radio indicated the government had regained control of Mosul sometime Tuesday. It said the military governor of Iraq had clamped a curfew on the northern city.

Krushchev Keeps Berlin Crisis Alive

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP)—Every day now Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev comes up with a new proposal for dealing with the Berlin crisis.

His record is impressive for imagination in fast diplomatic footwork. Sometimes he even seems to contradict himself.

But in the midst of the confusion, which he may deliberately seek in order to obscure the real issues, one fact stands out clearly. He is still pursuing his original purpose, announced just four months ago, to try to force the Western powers to give up their position in West Berlin.

This showcase of Western Democracy and prosperity in the heart of Communist East Germany is an irritant. He may be willing to risk war to remove it.

In the ultimate showdown, most Western officials are convinced Khrushchev will pull back before plunging the world into war. But they also think he will go very close to the brink if he has to in order to test Western determination to hold fast in Berlin.

Khrushchev's latest maneuver came in a speech at Berlin Monday. He said then that the Western powers might keep small garrisons of their forces in West Berlin if they agreed to make that city a "free city" and if a Soviet garrison was also stationed there.

This suggestion seemed to reverse the line he had taken in a note to the United States, Britain, France and West Germany on Nov. 27, when he first made his "free city" proposition and talked about demilitarizing West Berlin.

That was the second move in a series which began Nov. 10, when Khrushchev announced that the Western powers must get out of the German city and said that the Soviet Union intended to turn over its occupation functions in East Berlin to the East German Communist regime. The announcement immediately raised the specter of a new Berlin blockade.

Hope Will Play Leachville in State Tourney

FORT SMITH, Ark. (AP)—Four games today will wind up first round play in the Class AAAA State Basketball Tournament and provide pairings for tomorrow's quarterfinals.

Yesterday, Fort Smith, North Little Rock, Fayetteville and Jonesboro survived first round action and secured quarterfinal berths.

In the afternoon session today, Van Buren was matched against Smackover and Leachville was set against Hope.

Tonight, Fayetteville faces Conway and Pine Bluff plays Forrest City.

Yesterday's action provided three runaways and only one close contest, for a large opening day crowd. Jonesboro had some trouble with Magnolia before nailing down a 53-45 victory.

Fort Smith blasted Harrison, as expected, 58-22. North Little Rock defeated Little Rock Catholic 63-39, and Fayetteville downed Mabelvale 65-30.

Fort Smith still appears to be the team to beat. The Grizzlies will face North Little Rock tomorrow afternoon in the first game of the quarterfinals. Then Fayetteville and Jonesboro meet in the second quarterfinal bout.

Tommy Boyer, 6-6 senior letterman-center, paced Fort Smith's initial winning effort with 17 points. Joe Cecil scored 11 for Harrison.

Governor in Favor of Fall Racing Meet

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Gov. Orval E. Faubus today said he would favor a fall horse racing meet at Hot Springs' Oaklawn Park if it would attract people from outside Arkansas.

Faubus told a delegation of Hot Springs residents seeking a second racing meet this year that he would ask the State Racing Commission to study the possibility.

He said the commission would be requested to set up a committee to confer with representatives of Hot Springs interests and with the Oaklawn Jockey Club to determine what could be done in the way of promoting a fall meeting as a tourist attraction.

Faubus told the three Garland County legislators and eight Hot Springs businessmen he did "not think it would be good for the economy of Arkansas to have a fall meeting if the main support comes from residents of this state."

"I can appreciate and understand why the people of Hot Springs would want a fall race season," he said. "There seems to be no question but that the increased facilities at Oaklawn and the improved highway situation have caused a great increase in the number of visitors from outside the state during the current season."

The possibility of a fall meeting was first suggested yesterday, when it was announced that the delegation would confer with Faubus today.

A second meeting is possible under the law.

Formal approval would have to be given by the Racing Commission, whose members are appointed by Faubus. The current spring meeting will close March 28.

Navy May Be Team to Eye in NCAA Meet

By DON WEISS
Associated Press Sports Writer
Unsung Navy stood out today as the team to watch — if not the team to beat — as the NCAA basketball tournament moved to ward its weekend regional doubleheaders at Charlotte, N.C., Evanston, Ill., Lawrence, Kan. and San Francisco.

On a night when West Virginia won its first NCAA tournament game in five years of trying, Navy emerged with most of the attention after beating North Carolina, 76-63.

The Midwestern, as well balanced and finely tuned as a machine, simply dismantled Tar Heels in the windup of a first round Eastern regional tripleheader at Madison Square Garden.

West Virginia — an '82-68 winner over Dartmouth's Ivy League champions, and the Middle Atlantic, edged to the second round with Boston University, Marquette and Louisville.

West Virginia scored its long-awaited victory — ending a jinx of four straight first round defeats, and Boston U. whipped Connecticut with a spectacular rally — 60-58.

The Middle Atlantic champ which drew a first round bye, the three winners set up camp at Charlotte Friday and Saturday to pick the Eastern region's representative for the national semifinals at Louisville, March 20.

Marquette whipped Bowling Green 89-71 and Louisville turned back Eastern Kentucky 77-63 in first round play in the Midwest regional at Lexington, Ky. The Kentucky and Big 10 champ Michigan State in the Midwest wrapup at Evanston, Friday and Saturday.

With only one first round game remaining, New Mexico State vs. Idaho State at Las Cruces, N.M. tonight, the Friday regional shape up this way:

Eastern at Charlotte: West Virginia (28-4) vs. St. Joseph's (Pa.) (23-3); Boston U. (19-8) vs. Navy (17-6).

Mid Eastern at Evanston: Louisville (17-10) vs. Kentucky (23-2); Marquette (23-4) vs. Michigan State (18-3).

Mid Western at Lawrence, Kan.: Texas Christian (19-5) vs. Cincinnati (23-3); DePaul (18-9) vs. Kansas State (24-1).

Far Western at San Francisco: St. Mary's (18-5) vs. New Mexico State (18-5); Idaho State (21-3) vs. Utah (21-5); California (21-4) vs. Utah (21-5).

The four winners in Saturday's regional finals move into Louisville's Freedom Hall for the collegiate showdown March 20 & 21.

"Navy can go all the way in this tournament," said McGuire, who had won 20 of 24 games with a sophomore junior team molded after his NCAA champions of two years ago were graduated. "They might run into trouble with a big team like Kansas State, but I'll bet Ben can find the answer. He usually does."

Ben is Ben Carnevale, the gray-haired Navy coach who formerly coached at North Carolina and is one of McGuire's closest friends.

The big scorers were Jay Metzler with 20 points and flame-haired Dick Johnson with 16.

On the small school level, defending champ Tennessee A&M led an 8-game program that completed the two day first round in the week-long NAIA tournament in Kansas City. Advancing with the champs were Youngstown, Fairleigh-Dickinson, Illinois Normal, Southwest Texas, and Georgia Teachers.

Second Round in NIT Cage Playoff

KANSAS CITY (AP)—The National Intercollegiate Basketball Tournament moved into its second round today and the champion of the last two years, Tennessee A & I State, again appears to be the class of the field.

Tennessee A & I first all-Negro team ever entered in the six-day, 32-team tournament, was in high gear Tuesday night in defeating a well prepared Nebraska Wesleyan team 75-57.

The same big three — Dick Barnett, John Barnhill and Jim Satterwhite — that led A & I to its other NAIA crowns again got the job done for the speedy Tennessee club. Barnett scored 20 points.

The champions will meet a strong Youngstown (Ohio) University team in the second round feature game tonight. Youngstown won its first round game 55-76.

Second Round in NIT Cage Playoff

KANSAS CITY (AP) — The National Intercollegiate Basketball Tournament moved into its second round today and the champion of the last two years, Tennessee A & T State, again appears to be the class of the field.

Tennessee A & T first all-Negro team ever entered in the six-day, 32-team tournament, was in high gear Tuesday night in defeating a well prepared Nebraska Wesleyan team 75-57.

The same big three — Dick Barnett, John Barnhill and Jim Satterwhite — that led A & T to its other NAIA crowns again got the job done for the speedy Tennessee club. Barnett scored 29 points.

The champions will meet a strong Youngstown (Ohio) University team in the second round feature game tonight. Youngstown won its first round game 85-78.

Respiratory Ailments Strike Students
LITTLE ROCK (AP) — School officials reported hundreds of pupils in Little Rock, North Little Rock and Pulaski County started home today because of respiratory ailments.

Many other students who went to classes had to go home for the same reason.
Nearly 2,000 students in Little Rock public schools alone were absent Monday because of illness and the absentee rate also was heavy yesterday.

Dr. Mason Lawson, director of public health here, said the wave of respiratory ailments had not reached epidemic status.
"As far as we know, this thing is a combination of colds, allergies, sore throats and some flu," he added.

Dr. A. M. Washburn of the state health department said as far as he knew there was no infectious epidemic anywhere in Arkansas.

KILLER AMONG US

© 1958 by Robert Martin
By Robert Martin

THE STORY: Howard Ackerman, an executive of the Buckeye plant, is seriously hurt when a grinding wheel explodes. The accident occurred when Ackerman was taking Jim Bennett, private detective, through the plant. Bennett is working on a case of suspected sabotage.

and asked, "How is he?" "Still unconscious. The doctor's with him. They're taking him to the hospital," Varney sighed. "I saw Mr. Masters go in there. What's he doing—holding Ackerman's hand?"

Varney said seriously, "Mr. Masters takes a keen interest in all his people."

"Besides," I said, "if Ackerman dies, Mr. Masters can relax and not worry about the board forcing him to retire. And maybe you'll move from Personnel to Ackerman's job."

"Where did you get such an idea?" he asked sharply.

"From the good old grapevine. I also gather that Lawrence Quiney wants Ackerman's job, to."

Varney said quietly, "Larry is not fitted for Howard Ackerman's job."

"Because of wife trouble? And his drinking? Because he has failed to lick this wheel breakage problem?"

"Those are a few reasons," Varney said coldly.

"All right. But the more incompetence displayed by Quiney the better you like it, don't you?"

He took a deep breath. "You're still needing me, Bennett. Why?"

"I couldn't tell him why I rather liked Philip Varney. I'd been casting about, hoping to come up with something, a place to start. I smiled and said, 'Forget it.'"

He smiled, too. "You stick to sales, and I'll stick to personnel. Okay?"

"Okay."

He said, "Would you like the job I've got to do now?"

"Telling Mrs. Ackerman that Howard has been hurt, maybe seriously?"

"How old a woman is she?"

"Older than Howard. Late forties, maybe. He shook his head. "I sure hate to tell her. She's so intense and emotional. Hard to tell how she'll react. Any little thing upsets her."

"Why doesn't Masters go himself?"

"Are you kidding?" Varney gave me a bleak smile. "He's the boss."

Sandy was alone, sitting quietly in a chair by Dorothy Donovan's desk. She smiled at me and said, "What's the pitch around here?"

"I'll get to it. I'm sorry you had to wait. Incidentally, while you're here you don't know me from a pile of paint."

"I figured that, stranger."

"Did you meet Mrs. Donovan?"

"Yes, but she left. She seems very nice. I like her."

Sandy shrugged rounded shoulders. "She had a phone call and became quite upset. Something about an accident down in the factory. She excused herself and went out."

I said, "Her boss was hurt. I was with him when it happened."

"What am I supposed to do?" she asked when I'd finished.

"You're going to sit at a desk in the personnel department and inspect the records of Buckeye employees, from the president on down."

Sandy looked blank. "Why?"

"I think you know why. Somebody here is a criminal. Maybe he has a record and has been in trouble before. Maybe he's a psycho with a real or imagined grievance against the company. I am told that the personnel records here are quite complete. If so, they will include pertinent data about each employee—his absence record, physical examination report, maybe his photo, reports of misconduct and warnings, many things."

There was a discreet knock on the door. I opened it to admit Ivy League Stallings, Philip Varney's assistant. Today he was wearing a narrow gray, flannel jacket, charcoal slacks, no pants, black cordovans, pale blue Oxford button-down shirt, narrow regimental striped tie. As I introduced him to Sandy he gazed at her with deep appreciation.

"We've been expecting you, Miss Hollis. Shall we go down to the office?"

"Whatever you say," Sandy said demurely.

Stallings nodded at me, said to Sandy, "Glad to have you aboard," and ushered her to the door. As they went out, Sandy winked at me over one shoulder.

I sat at Dorothy Donovan's desk and looked around for a phone book. Seeing none, I opened the middle drawer. Inside was a book, along with pencils, paper clips, stenographer's note book, and a lady's blue leather wallet, which I picked up and opened. It contained $14 in bills, 69 cents in change and the usual cards and papers.

I learned from Dorothy Donovan's Social Security card that her middle name was Darlene. Quite cute, I thought—D.D.D. In one of the compartments of the wallet was a colored snapshot of a pretty little blond girl, maybe five or six years old, standing in bright sunlight, clutching an enormous stuffed teddy bear.

IT'S A PIPEMOBILE—Making a tough job look easy is the Pipemobile, an invention of the American Pipe and Construction Co. of South Gate, Calif. Riding on seven huge 21,000-25 Good-year Earthmover tires, the 80-ton machine crawls part way through a section of 68-ton concrete pipe, picks it up, waddles it to position, jockeys it into place, then takes off for another section. The powerful monster is being used in construction of the Los Angeles-San Diego Metropolitan Water Aqueduct, where it places an average of 15 pipe sections a day on slopes as steep as 62 degrees.

Explosion Damages Club Belvedere

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—An explosion damaged part of the Belvedere Country Club near here early today a few minutes after an anonymous telephone caller warned a nightwatchman the building would be blown up.

Fire Chief Alfred Nichols blamed the explosion on a bomb—possibly a home-made one.

The watchman and two other employees in the club were not hurt.

A 10-foot hole was torn in the flooring of the club kitchen and a storeroom beneath the kitchen also was damaged. Several kitchen windows were broken by the blast and a refrigerator fell through the hole in the kitchen floor.

Investigating officers found a crumpled gasoline container which club manager Roy Dillenbach said he had never seen before.

Owner Dan Harris later told a newsman he thought the blast might have been caused by a gas leak. He did not attempt to explain the telephone call nor the presence of the gasoline container. Harris described the damages as "minor."

Nichols disputed the gas theory. He said the blast "definitely" was not a gas explosion and declared it was caused "evidently by some kind of a bomb, possibly a home-made one."

The fire chief said an odor of powder was detected after the blast. He said it was the same kind of odor present when dynamite is exploded.

The plush club, which contains a gambling casino, closed about 4:30 a.m.

Nightwatchman Ed Davis said he got the phone call about an hour later. He said a man's voice warned him to "get everyone out" because there was going to be an explosion.

Davis told officers he thought the call was a joke. He said he tried to learn the man's identity but the caller hung up.

The nightwatchman notified the Wild West Hits at New York Town

HARRISON, N.Y. (AP)—Floods of bullets Tuesday brought down two tons of beef on the roof and ended Watchtower County's wild West story.

It started last August, when six steers weighing about half a ton apiece broke out of a corral on the Norda Experimental Farms here.

One was shot down a few days later. The other five hung around, just out of reach, until shortly before Christmas.

Then they took off and started to roam over the county. Reports poured in from startled drivers, sheriff's office.

James Hudspeth, 48, a club employee, said he was standing within 10 feet of the hole in the floor when the blast occurred. Pete Ashburn, a club steward was sleeping in a room nearby and was awakened by the explosion.

Harris said the club often received telephone calls from cranks. He did not elaborate.

Sheriff Leonard Ellis told a newsman his office got a call from the club and added, "We've had two or three bogus calls around here lately."

An ambulance and a fire truck were sent to the club. But there was no fire from the blast.

Students in Play Use Wrong Words

UNION, N.J. (AP)—Several high school students face disciplinary action because they said "hell" and "damn" during last Saturday night's presentation of the play "The Man Who Came to Dinner."

The original script of the George Kaufman-Moss hit comedy contains those words, but student players had agreed to eliminate them for the senior class play.

They did on Friday night. On Saturday night, they didn't. School Principal Harry Cooke is attempting to learn if it was a deliberate slap at censorship.

OVERNIGHT-IT'S FORD!

WHY?

Yes, America has voted on the new '59 cars—and it's Ford all the way with folks who want high style, lasting value, economical operation, and low prices—why?

Because Ford is Built for People. Ford design is not only the most strikingly beautiful style of the year, but the most sensible, too. It's easier to get in and out, with Ford's inches wider, open-all-the-way doors. All six passengers, not just four, ride in full-depth seats. There's more head room, leg room, stretch room. Even the larger trunk space is easier to get at.

Because Ford's Prices are Lowest. Check the price tag and you'll see, Ford's lowest priced of the most popular 3. You save up to $100—even more—with the optional equipment you want.

Because Ford is Built for Savings. You save up to a dollar a tankful—with Ford Six and Thunderbird V-8 engines that thrive on regular gasoline. Ford's standard Full-Flow oil filter allows you to change oil only every 4000 miles. Only Ford has such money-saving features as Diamond Lustre Finish that never needs waxing...long-life aluminum muffler.

Yes, Compare! We Ford Dealers invite comparison—we like to talk prices—we like to demonstrate. We would love to put you behind the wheel and let you sample the terrific, new Thunderbird '59 of the World's Most Sensibly Proportioned Cars.

PARADE OF FASHIONS

SHOP IN HOPE . . . FOR THAT NEW SPRING AND EASTER OUTFIT

To Our Readers:

The fashions in this edition are presented to you to show the Trends of the Season and to serve you as a guide as you shop.

You will find many of them in stores throughout this community.

However, if you do not find identical styles in our local shops, we believe similar ones will be available.

Blouses Reflect Feminine Moods for New Season

The neckline is the style scap in spring blouses! . . . Strongly fashion endorsed are either the high-high or low-low lines, with no concession made to the "in-between" range.

Length, too, makes news, with shorter blouses designed to complement spring's short jacket suits. They're shown in both tucked-in and overblouse types.

Pink, blue, yellow and green, head the color line-up with white-on-white patterns close behind the classic pure white.

High necks are adorned with soft ties, soft bows and applique touches. Or, they are cut simply in the jewel, mandarin or Peter-Pan collar fashion.

Low necks also feature bows, in addition to self-fringed ties, jeweled touches and embroidered, cut-out borders.

Miracle blends have the upper hand in fabrics, with cottons treated to wash-wear, following close behind.

The slightly longer, overblouse in cotton hopsacking, stripes or florals is the style leader for wear over pants, shorts and cotton skirts. Even in these, necks are very high or very low.

New — The Norfolk cut sport coat. This classic style with suspenders, effect and slanted down belt makes a timely revival. The real news however, is the lining, bright paisley-print cotton.

Muumuu continues as an important easy-to-wear duster silhouette borrowed from Hawaii. This spring it is given greater elegance by more luxurious fabrics and trimmings for increased versatility.

SOCIETY TEA SANDAL and a wonderful travel companion wherever the destination. This new T-strap, in fine calfskin with very pointed toe and new, slip-on breakable heel is a fashion that rates plenty of (favorable) gossip.

Assorted Dots Now Punctuate Spring's Story of Fashion

Don't rush to your oculist just because you're seeing dots before your eyes! Big fashion news — this spring is the return of polka dots and from here on in, you'll be seeing more and more of them in every conceivable size and color combination!

Polka dots range from the almost microscopic, through the penny-size, into the dots big and round as a silver dollar. Black, red or navy on white, traditional polka dot shades, are being superseded by combinations that strike a hitherto unorthodox note! Pink and green, yellow and red, lilac and deep purple are but a few of the unusual, but eye-pleasing polka-dot duos seen today.

Bermuda Shorts pajamas make a point of sportswear-styled tops in nautical, blouson and shirt designs.

News Worth Nothing for Spring 1959

Now that whizzing across the Atlantic in a mere six and a half hours has become a reality, the feminine traveler wants more than ever, lightweight clothes that require minimum time for care.

Today's jet-age traveler can sally forth equipped with a complete wardrobe that meets those requirements.

For instance, spring suits now can be washed and drip-dried. Just as ideal are knit fashions that refuse to wrinkle. They are easily stashed with no blocking needed. Blouses and tailored shirts in an infinite variety of colors, prints, and patterns are made in broadcloths, balistes and crepes that can be easily sudsed and hanger-dried to smoothness with ironing on broad, late day occasions. Abroad, a wise choice are weightless dressy separates — such as a short, full nylon chifton skirt and sleeveless, scoop-necked blouse in lace of nylon or of "Orion" acrylic fiber. "Lingerie" in nylon tricot or in baliste of nylon, Dacron polyester fiber, and cotton is featherweight and quick to wash and dry. Forenoon-length pajamas with feminine, shortly cropped tops have a place for sleeping or lounging. They are made in tailored broadcloth and feminine cotton blend styles, ruffled or daintily trimmed.

PAIR OFF A PRINT with suits for spring. Here traditional paisley is translated onto dacron crepe for this handsome blouse to wear under a jacket or with unlined skirts. The blouse accents its tiny collar with a pull-through bow in velvet that matches the color of the blouse.

Gay, Comfort Sandals

News in spring and summer footwear are the new sandals developed and manufactured by Dr. Scholl's.

Featuring exclusive built-in metal arch supports to relieve stress and strain, they offer firm support with every step.

Available in styles for men, women and children, fashioned of fine leathers in every favored warm-day color, these smart sandals are versatile enough for year-round wear. Shopping, walking, driving, running or relaxing they offer the ultimate in style, comfort and appreciate.

Moderately priced, they are available in a complete size range. If you're planning on fun make sure you're not both-ered with aching feet. Treat yourself to a pair of these new sandals.

Checks Are Smart, New, Spring Asset

Checked and double-checked for fashion distinction is the spring revival of . . . checks! Little checks, big checks and out-size "race-track" checks are seen everywhere! Yes, checks are featured on every inch of the spring fashion picture!

Favored for sports, casual and travel wear are the big bold checks in dramatic combinations ranging from stark black and white to two-toned pastels. Dressier clothes feature variations of smaller checks in subdued, yet vivid colors.

Here's a tip for the fashion conscious on a limited budget . . . check your closet and add a strategic helping of checks to up-date your spring wardrobe.

IT'S ALL HERE... the checks, the wide cummerbund-style belt, the softly-pleated shoulders and shorter jacket that are so unmistakably Spring. Subtly shaded of all-wool, this beautifully up-dated version of a favorite style would be equally at home shopping on Main Street or promading down a Paris Boulevard.

So This Is the Empire

Empire here and Empire there — the Empire theme is everywhere in fashion's scheme for an exciting spring and summer wardrobe.

What is it? It is a soft, feminine handling of detail that focuses attention at the top of the figure and revolves around the waist line.

Just under the bust or just above the natural waistline, fashion points up the Empire look with such detailing as bolts, seaming or sashes; again it may be delineated with arched set-in bands, obi ties, draw string handling of cummerbunds.

Dropped shoulder seams, wide cape like collars and puffed sleeves all help add top width and further give illusion of smaller waists and hips.

In dressier lines, the classic Empire tradition is defined with a bit of a bodice, lifted waist and a soft gentle flow of skirt that is bell shaped, cone-shaped — or fluted with all the grace of a classic Greek column.

Its many fanciful variations, there's an "Empire" just right for any figure, any occasion and every fashion-conscious woman.

JUST ASKING
BALTIMORE (AP) — A bus driver announced "Charles" twice before the bus crossed Charles Street at Baltimore Street.

After the second call, a passenger walked forward and said, seriously: "I'm Charles. What do you want?"

Rainwear 'Big Fashion' Splash

Ladies will be bright even when weather is grim — because rainwear has soaked up color. Strong reds and blues, deep shades and strained glass colors are especially important.

Paisley and floral prints are more numerous than ever — and geometric, novelty prints and novelty flocked patterns are gaining in favor.

Printed stripes run up votes on cotton poplin, corduroy, cotton, cord and cotton knit.

Bold plaids will laugh loudly at drizzly days while iridescent coats shine through the haze.

Former fair-weather fabrics now shed moisture like magic. Surprising additions in the coat fashions are wool jersey, flannel, velveteen, looped wool tweeds and other wool-look fabrics.

Plastic still maintains its place as a pleasing protector... now, too, appearing in the new silhouettes and colors.

Opinion has it that no matter what raincoat lady selects this season... she's sure to make a smart splash in the world of fashion!

Coveralls — one piece pajamas with zipper front closing stop at the ankle or calf and attractively double for day or night wear.

Children's Shoe Shaping Up Lighter

Boys' and girls' shoes will come to a point this spring. To apply to be as sharp a point as the one on mother's pump. In fact, "tapered" is a more exact description. And it will be actually tapered to fit. Growing young feet, but the shape will be definitely different from last year's.

To assume real foot comfort, children's shoes will be of the most flexible leather and softer construction, with pliant leather soles to give plenty of freedom along with healthful support.

Black is the top shade in both boys' and girls' shoes. White, red and navy come next in popularity for little girls and shades of brown with boys.

The T-strap will be much in evidence in both school and party shoes for girls. Tear-drop cut-outs just like those on mother's dress shoes will appear on the dress-up styles, along with fringed leather bars and even jeweled trim where the strap fastened.

EMPIRE SHEATH that has all the glamour, plus the practicality that makes travel easy. In Coham's plume weave of Arnel tricot and fine Egyptian cotton.

Contracts Let for Warning System

WASHINGTON (AP) — Extension of the Distant Early Warning line across the ice cap of Greenland was assured today with the award of contracts to Danish and American contracting groups.

Danish Arctic Contractors of Copenhagen received a $14,404,137.35 contract to complete radar stations on Greenland's west and east coasts. Another contract, for $12,720,000, was awarded to Peter Kiewit Sons Co., New York City, for two listening stations on the ice cap of north-central Greenland.

The construction will use the DEW line which now stretches from Alaska to Baffin Island to the extensions across Greenland. The two stations on the ice cap will be about 15 feet above the surface.

As holdover members on a new grand jury. Apparently the law has been used only in Garland and Pulaski Counties.

Shirtwaists Top Spring's Hit Parade

Spring heralds the return to universal popularity of that great American fashion — the shirtwaist! In the classroom or the office, shopping or sight-seeing, dancing or relaxing, the shirtwaist reigns supreme among fashion-conscious women.

Ranging from casual to cocktail styles, the new shirtwaists are fashioned of every imaginable fabric in every imaginable color; feature a wealth of new, smart detailing.

Daytime models have either slim or slightly full skirts, with buttons that stop short at the waist or continue to the hem.

Colors and miracle blends, and many in day-day versions, are favored for these sun-loving types. Colors are varied with polka dots, bold stripes and real prints predominating.

Braid and scroll trim in contrasting colors add a bright touch, as do puffed backs and novelty buttons, many in gold or silver color. Nylon, silk, organza, lustily colored broadens, even satins fashion the shirtwaist designed to shine at snow-line with their buildings supported on columns equipped with motor-operated jacks for raising or lowering them 16-foot clearance over the snow.

CASUAL TRAVELING OUT-FIT features a non-button blanket cloth coat in shocking pink, ribbon trimmed. Dress in beige has pink stitching complementing the coat. White luggage is new jet-age silhouette.

the cocktail or dinner hour. These dressy models, with button or blouse styled skirts, sparkle with rhinestone buttons, jeweled collar and cuffs and many other hints of eye-catching trim.

Casual or dressy whatever the occasion, there's a shirtwaist or two or three in your spring fashion future!

In selecting any shoe fashion, decrease more coordination with every costume. Now shoes are a very important accessories, accessories and should be properly selected to harmonize with the rest of the ensemble.

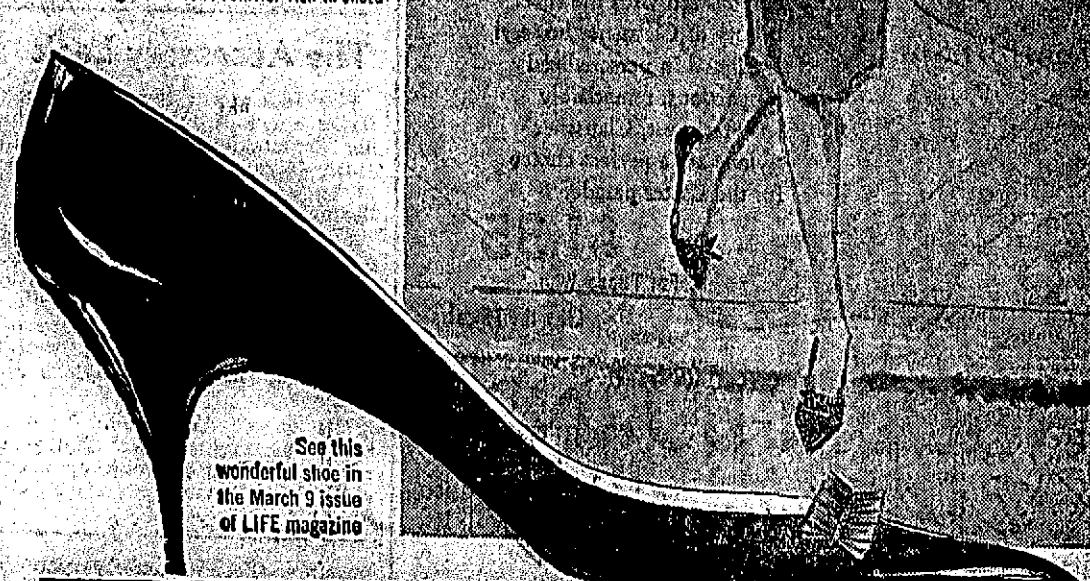

Sleepcoats cover matching pajamas or are fastened alone as comfortable sleepwear.

The Accessory Look

For the many open-jacket suit styles there are fresh, new looking weskits, gilet pieces and dramatic jabots. Assorted long ties — to be bowed very low or 'neath the chin — are new and smart too.

White frosting — for blacks and navy, as well as for the new "hot" colors — takes shape in platter collars of dainty lace, in V-neck fill-ins of lace and ruffles in portrait collars of fine piques, nylons and dacrons.

It's smart fashion to keep in mind the bright impact that these refreshing, white neckwear accessories can give to your spring costume!

possible these intensely youthful shadings.

SUCCESS-STYLED is this three-button, natural shoulder suit with flap lapels. In Eastman Kodak — It has a luxurious look and stays fresh with a minimum of care.

Color Continues Importantly in Spring Hosiery

Color bursts upon the spring scene from every fashion direction and gives colored stockings a further boost into 1936.

More than ever before the new hinges on color in costumes — now that dresses to coats have reverted to conservatism of silhouette. It is precisely because the line of clothes has been simplified while skirts remain short, that goings on below the hemline will carry greater fashion impact this spring.

Major key to proper hosiery selection is the pale, to be sounded off in unison with the pale shoe — by such tones as bisque, blond and bone, by tones so ethereal they almost defy description in the prestige families of green, pink and blue, also yellow and mauve. This key headlines the look that fashion offers for spring leadership, of lightness of color below a dark hemline.

Next in line for high fashion is the key of brightness. The new formula here is to have stockings stand out on their own as bold accent notes between light, contrasting colored clothes and shoes such as white. This is where the brilliant blues including teal come in, the lightning reds, clear pastels, greens and hot hues such as orange.

Third key in the spring color scale is one that reverberates into 1936 from 1935, the dark. It is made up of the off-blacks, the rich browns, the blues and the grays that continue successfully in the show as matches or blends for clothes and shoes in the same colors.

Lingerie Too, Follows All New Themes

Never before have outerwear silhouettes and colors so keenly influenced lingerie fashions as they have this spring.

The simple lines, classic character and lack of ornamentation in spring fashions offer an invitation to colorful and decorated underpinnings.

Example — a bold printed petticoat and matching panty help underscore a monochrome suit!

Fur trimmings are expected to show a big increase next year, reports the Fur Information and Fashion Council. The 1936 retail business in fur trimmed coats was the best in a decade.

Looking up at skyscrapers, airplanes and mountains is good for a woman's double chin, says 1936 fashion expert Marjorie Dunton.

THE BOLERO EFFECT will be very popular for spring. On this coat-dress the front is cut to give this impression while the back remains straight. One large black button ends the long wide collar and contrasts with the black and white small dogtooth pattern. Crisp touches of white set off the neckline and cuffs. Hat is of same woolen fabrics.

A Wonderful World of Gay Accessories

With color so important — and top interest, in line with the Empire silhouette, as the focal point — accessories can make many less-than-up-to-date styles look decidedly new.

Belts, first and foremost, belong in colorful profusion every smart wardrobe. The new-as-next-minute, wide, wide ones carry the waistline up, where it belongs this season.

Jewelry Colorful
To further accent the top, necklaces in vivid hues are practically essential. Making a strong come-back are multistrand pearl chokers.

Cascades and drops are excellent for expressing Empire feeling, and necklaces make use of central detail.

Flowers and other beauties of nature bloom in necklaces, pins, bracelets and earrings.

Enamel makes a strong bid for attention in jewelry as real-looking pieces or color accents on metal.

Bangles and cuff bracelets, wide, tailored or heavily studded with stone and color are bright arm fillers.

Small novelty pins demand almost as much attention as the massive stone-set Empire pin.

Glistening waistline or shoulder accents are the large stone pins, often three-dimensional and impressive with their large-stoned sparkle.

Handbags Are Novel

Handbags are remaining big, bold and, for spring, especially gay. Leathers, in smooth, grained or brushed textures, are decidedly brilliant in color. Beads, prints, metals, ribbons and flowers accent the new, snaw, cloth and novelty handbags.

For after-five, elongated clutch bags will be better than ever. Width rather than length shapes up as the new silhouette in both casual and dressy styles.

Empire Lines Need Gentle Foundations

The success of the new spring fashions — "architecturally" sleek and soft — rests on the foundation choices you make.

With the return of the defined waist, the pencil slim skirt and the revival of the soft and gently molded tops — figure control is essential.

Even the full-skirted styles demand the correct foundation this season as most will be smoothly pleated.

For the slender skirts, hips, back, front and upper leg lines must be firm and smooth.

Girdles and corselets, especially split-hip types gain new fashion endorsement here.

With waists belted, shortened, or normal in back and high in front — the waist cincher, high rise girdle and longline bra will be in demand.

Top news in foundations is a high, rounded bustline — important since bodices will be soft or molded and the many, many jackets shown — will feature gentle lines.

Size news is the introduction of D cups for the youthful figure.

Several styles are offered — some the same as those shown in A, B and C cup sizes.

Colors take on more life for spring in the foundation category. Pink turns to dusty rose, blues become livelier, beiges are exciting champagne. Lavenders, yellows, brighter blues and bright red come to the fore, too.

But the palette picture is really a masterpiece of hue accenting. White and the other classic colors are sparked with the addition of bright blue, multi-color embroidery, yellow or pink ribbons and red ribbons on black.

Appointed to the Confederate Board

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Mrs. John F. Weinman was appointed to the Confederate Home Board yesterday by Gov. Orval Faubus. Mrs. Weinman, who will serve until Jan. 14, 1963, succeeds Mrs. D. S. Clark of Fayetteville.

Arkansas has had five Constitutions and the present one has been amended 42 times.

LEAVES ARE OUT IN FULL BLOOM wherever jewelry is seen. Here two matching leaf pins in gold and stone adorn the lapel of a spring suit. Small similar leaves are used for earrings. The maple leaf pins are made of a fine network of gold and brilliants. Leaf and flower motifs will appear in a wide variety of necklace, earrings and pins this season.

Emphasis on Color Leather Handbags

Leather handbags for spring 1959 will have a rich, full look. The squares and rectangles have been softened by drapes, pleats or gussets and there are new pouch and catchall shapes.

Extra-soft and superbly supple leather will be used in most daytime bags in black, red, oyster beige, bright blue and navy. Many of them will have shaped leather handles, slightly longer than last seasons. Gift locks and name plates will add interest.

Leather bags will be organized for efficiency with inside pockets enough to hold everything a woman carries around — or almost everything — in a special place.

Many handbags will have outside pockets for coin purses, passports, keys, etc. One pouch bag has a recessed section at the top within which adjustable snapped bands hold umbrella or papers.

Phillips county was formed May 1, 1920 from Arkansas county and named for Sylvanus Phillips, who settled near the mouth of the St. Francis river in 1787. Helena, the county seat, was named for his daughter.

SLIP-UP— This slip rises to conform with the new shorter hem lengths. Lace scallops and nylon tricot follow faithfully along figure lines — to stop just above the knee. In black or white.

Something New in Fun Shoes

Introduced for spring is a new type of slipper-shoe for at-home wear, around boats and swimming pools, to the country club, or with most any sport and spectator costumes.

These unique fun shoes are made of the softest, pliable leather — and a "whisker" heavier than glove leathers.

The stunning, gay hues of the leathers, contrast with colored stitching details ... and are often shown in a combination of two shades.

Both open and closed types are included in these comfortable, recreation-loving shoes. A foot-pampering sponge rubber innersole is completely covered by leather inside and as the outer sole.

You'll find these versatile shoes at most hosiery counters.

Bids Taken on Old Sanatorium

FORT SMITH, Ark. (AP)—Several bids for acquisition of the Wildcat Sanatorium property here were taken under advisement by the City Commission yesterday after a public hearing.

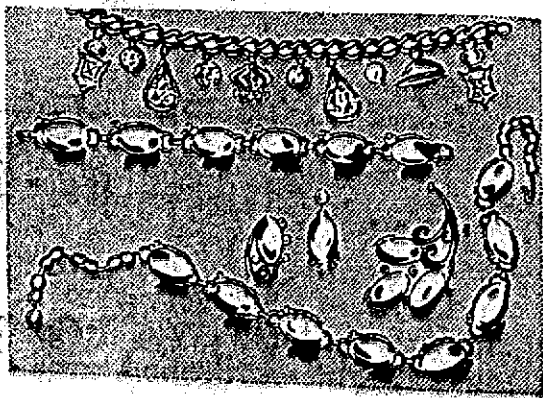

Four proposals have been received for disposition of the 77-acre site and facilities of Wildcat, formerly a tuberculosis sanatorium closed last December.

The proposals were made by the Fort Smith District Methodist Church, the Fort Smith Junior Chamber of Commerce, the Arkansas Girls Training School at Alexander and Charles G. Crockett of Fort Smith, who has inquired about obtaining the property for a private nursing home.

MISS AMERICA 1959, lovely Mary Ann Mobley, models a beautiful Empire silhouette short-sleeved gown made especially for her. It represents the first "Ban-Lon" dress face made in this country.

Costumes Are Featured for Spring

Costume is the word for Spring, with coat costumes, dress costumes and suit costumes epitomizing this newest fashion look.

Accepted overwhelmingly by women in every age bracket, these versatile outfits lead double, triple and sometimes quadruple lives!

Three piece suit costumes feature a slim skirt with contrasting cardigan jacket and flared print blouses that exactly match the lining of the jacket.

Each of the three fashion components can lead individual lives in company with other skirts, blouses or dresses. Smart — and a wardrobe stretching wonder.

Print dresses team with solid, print-lined coats. Solid sheaths and matching 7/8 length coats create a smart new look.

In many cases a dressy sheath takes a simple bolero jacket, which when open reveals a bright lining.

The dress with matching jacket, finely detailed to resemble a suit, is in great demand by women who lead busy lives as homemakers or careerists. Simply tailored for day time wear, often the doffed jacket reveals a dress with glitter-sprinkled bodice, low scoop neckline or other dressy accents.

Available in a wonderful selection of solids, prints and combinations, the new spring costumes are so slim, smart and becoming, there's scarcely a woman who wouldn't love to have one.

Ex-Officer Won't Tell About Money

NEW YORK (AP)—Former Police Sgt. Joseph Lubarda balked today at telling a grand jury how he happened to be carrying almost $20,000 in cash in his automobile.

Lubarda told Asst. Dist. Atty. Aaron Koota of Kings County (Brooklyn) he would not testify without a lawyer present and that he wanted more time to get one. This was shortly before he was scheduled to appear before the grand jurors.

Police discovered $19,945 in Lubarda's automobile last week when he was arrested in Suffern, N.Y., on a drunken driving charge.

Koota said subpoenas had been issued for four members of Lubarda's family to appear.

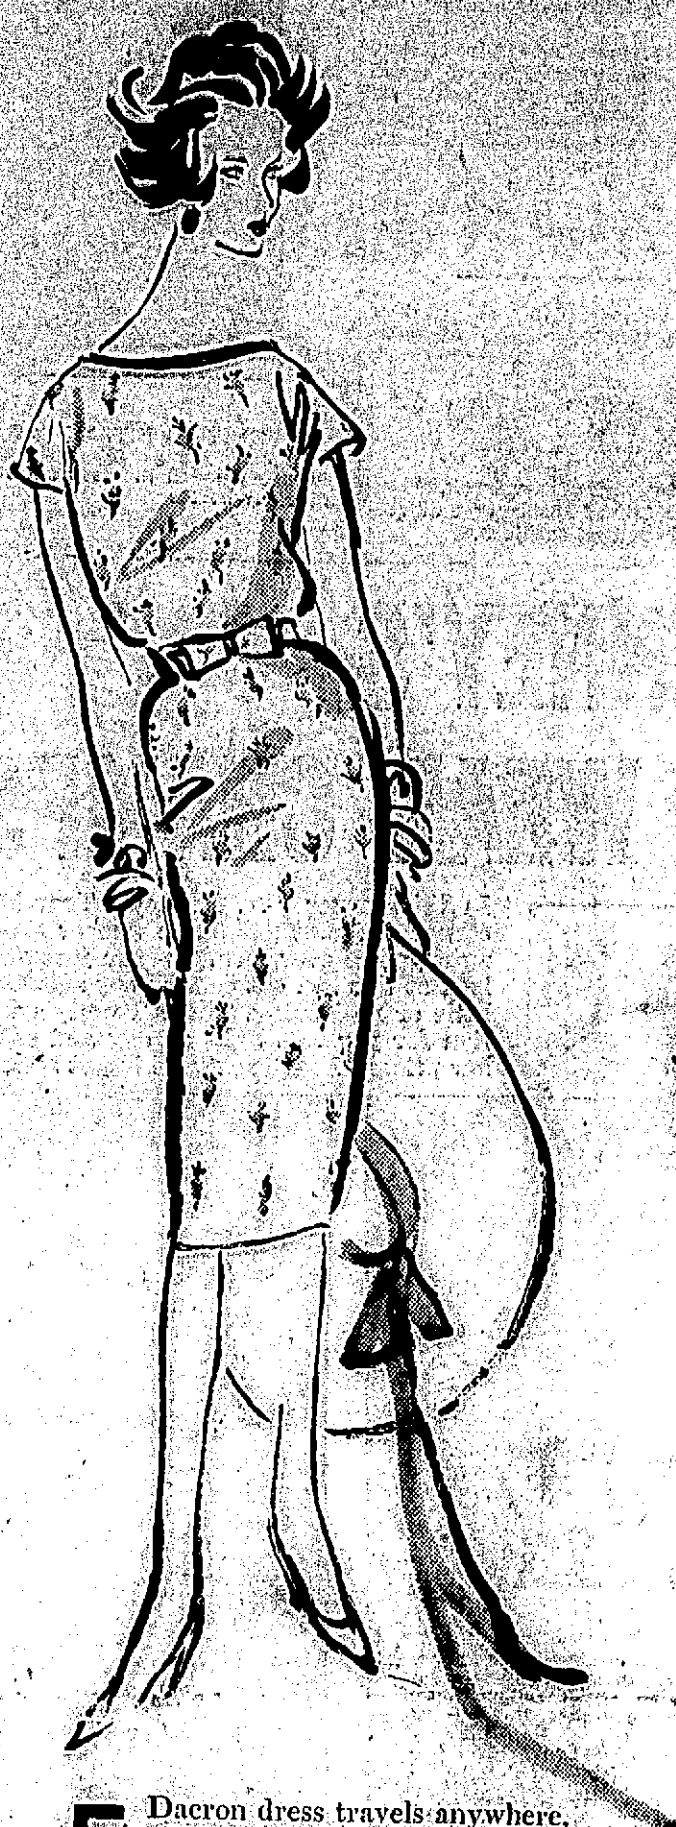

They were his 80-year-old mother, Stella Matysiak, his sister, Laura Hittel, and two brothers, Steve and Edward Lubarda.

A staff of 100 detectives has rounded up dozens of persons in their investigation into Lubarda's wealth.

FIVE MAKE THREE in this geometric design set — back face is actually two worn together for double emphasis — curved bars of the two matching bracelets have linked themselves together, too. Ear ring set picks up the modern motif and new synchronized colors to match.

LET'S FACE FACTS — Men look their executive-best in fine tropical-worsted that stand up when temperatures soar. The dashing, pure wool "Wibble-weave" shown here is in the popular "American Ambassador" silhouette.

Lots of Styles for Guys in Spring Wearables

It's the little touches that distinguish a new season, and the men's sportswear field has a goodly share of new and noteworthy touches for spring.

NEW . . . shirts knit to look like sweaters! In both pullover and cardigan styles, these shirts are styled exactly like a sweater, with longer, looser lines. Bulky textured orlon or nylon knit vie in popularity with the familiar cotton knit.

NEW . . . The bright look of iridescent cotton and nylon in solids, stripes and patterns. Even the most conservative will admire those fabrics in slacks, jackets, shorts and shirts.

NEW . . . the classic blazer jacket with the added touch of a monogram on the pocket, which may be either initials or a professional insignia.

It's easier for the guys too, as at first glance they can tell exactly who is what!

NEW . . . prints in sport car motifs. The sports car craze has really arrived now! Driver or spectator, can now outfit himself in shirts, slacks, walking shorts or beach-wear sporting an all-over sports car print in bright colors.

NEW . . . the return of all white for both active and spectator sportswear! This is primarily due to the appearance of new fibers and weaves that can be put through an automatic wash-dry cycle and come out looking as though they'd just emerged from under a hot iron.

NEW . . . one piece cotton shirts, skillfully cut and patterned to create the illusion of a cardigan over a shirt. Shorter than the regular sport shirt, they feature a solid color, edged or banded like a cardigan, with a white inset that mimics a shirt front.

Easy Care, Wear in Slacks

Two-part harmony is the keynote in the jacket-slacks fashion picture for men this spring. There'll be no problem about selecting the right slacks in the right color, either, for they're available in hundreds of different shades.

Tropical worsted slacks alone come in over 300 different colors. There's a pair to go with every new jacket.

Continuous waistband styles, many beltless and some halfbelt models, are considered newsworthy.

The Ivy-type (the back buckle strap of past seasons) has now all but disappeared from slacks. It has been replaced by smart side adjustment tabs, buckled or buttoned.

Pocket flaps with flaps are also being shown. The underside of the flap is often lined with a smart foulard pattern.

Slacks will be streamlined, more tapered and more often with no pleats. They'll be light, cool and comfortable and resist wrinkles.

Many slacks will wear no cuffs at all, further emphasizing the important continental influence in men's wear.

It's going to be a good season to throw-out your old slacks and replace them with a smarter, easier-to-care-for slacks wardrobe.

PAYS DIVIDENDS

LAWRENCEBURG, Tenn. (AP) — The First Presbyterian Church's new $200,000 sanctuary has just about everything the 66-member congregation could want. And it's all paid for.

How could such a small group pay cash?

In 1940, the church received a gift of stock from the late Richard S. Reynolds Sr., president of the Reynolds Metals Co.

By last year the stock had increased in value enough to pay the costs of the new building.

Rebel Radio in Iraq Is Silent Now

By TOM MASTERSON

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP)—Iraq's government reiterated today it has crushed the week-end nationalist uprising and accused a foreign power—apparently meaning President Gamal Abdel Nasser's United Arab Republic—of stirring up the trouble.

The rebels, whether by choice or necessity, maintained radio silence after signing off at midnight with a final claim to control of all north Iraq.

The victory declarations of Premier Abdel Karim Kasseem's Communist-influenced regime via Radio Baghdad met no further challenge on Middle East airwaves.

Mystery still surrounded the insurrection led by Col. Abdel Wahab Shawaf in oil-rich Mosul. Few specific details had been disclosed by either side.

Iraq's military governor, Ahmed Saleh el Abdi, voiced the charge of foreign meddling in a broadcast from Baghdad.

"We advise this country that is cooperating with imperialism to stop spreading lies, because these will not affect the Iraqi republic," he said.

"This imperialist state must know that the people and army of Iraq are determined to preserve our republic and smash all imperialist stooges."

Kasseem's regime has been at odds with Nasser for months over the Iraqi leader's refusal to adopt a policy of Arab unity along lines advocated in Cairo.

Radio Baghdad repeated its claim—denied Monday by the reels' Haid Mostaf—that Shawaf had been killed by his own men.

The rebel radio in the north Iraq oil city of Mosul had grown steadily weaker before it stopped broadcasting about midnight Monday.

The final rebel broadcast repeated the aims of the revolution. Several listening posts in Beirut which heard the rebel radio signal clearly Monday could not find a trace of the station this morning.

The two sides had kept up a running drumming of conflicting victory claims. Crowds of Kasseem supporters celebrated through the streets of Baghdad as the government radio blared word that the insurrection had been smashed.

The crowds cheered wildly as government broadcasts proclaimed that Kasseem's planes and troops had knocked out the rebels and that Shawaf had been slain. A rebel broadcast quickly denied this and said that a rebel column was marching on Baghdad.

The early rebel broadcasts made it plain the insurgents were siding with Arab unity aims of President Nasser of the United Arab Republic. The rebels did not mention Nasser by name, but they declared they would undo what they called Kasseem's isolation of Iraq from other Arab countries.

The rebel radio also blasted the growing strength of communism in Baghdad government circles. "We do not want to replace our Moslem religion with atheism," it said.

AP correspondent Stan Carter, first American newsmen to reach Baghdad after the revolt, said the Kasseem government gave no sign of fearing that the rebellion would spread to the capital.

There were only a few army units in Baghdad, Carter said, and they did not appear to be on special alert.

Bold, splashy prints are part of the important color story for summer sportswear and casuals some times contrasted with stark white, as in patterned top with white shorts or skirt.

Oriental styles in robes and pajamas continue as pretty and versatile lounging fashions.

KNIT TO FIT: soft-to-the-touch gloves — are so right to wear with new spring suits and coats. A unique diamond-ribbed design is incorporated in these smart four-button length gloves. In white, black or beige.

New, Jauntier Styling High Spot In Menswear

This season, fun and leisure wear for men is slanted more than ever toward the growing idea that it's twice as enjoyable to relax when you're dressed right for it.

A survey of the entire range of spring and summer sportswear by the American Institute of Men's and Boys' Wear, bears this out.

For instance, sports jackets are now fashioned in featherweight wools for increased comfort and ease in wearing, along with crisp smartness in looks.

Styled for good looks, they also boast new built-in tailoring features that make for utmost freedom of movement.

The sports jacket range goes all the way from traditional wool fabrics — in the lightweights men now prefer — to wash-wear treated cottons and the newest test-tube fabrics that are both handsome and versatile. Many comprise blends of these and other fabrics, such as silk, to make for one of the widest selections ever to appear from the apparel makers.

Knits Are Newsworthy

The Institute also points out the continuing popularity of knit sport shirts. Easy to wear pull-overs, for instance, are just the thing for boating, tennis and other active times. Some of the new ones are buttoned down the front like cardigan sweaters. They're available in stripes, solids and scores of patterns. As for colors — you'll find every shade of the rainbow.

Slim, Trim Slacks

Slacks to go with the jackets are headlined by new "Continental" features, including the slimmer-than-ever streamlined effect. "Continental" slacks, besides their slim, and slimming lines also sport light a single-pleat cut, polo pockets and side tabs.

Ivy-inspired slacks are likewise much to the fore, marked by their now familiar backstraps and back flap pockets.

Many have built-in self supports — no belt needed.

Wash And Wear

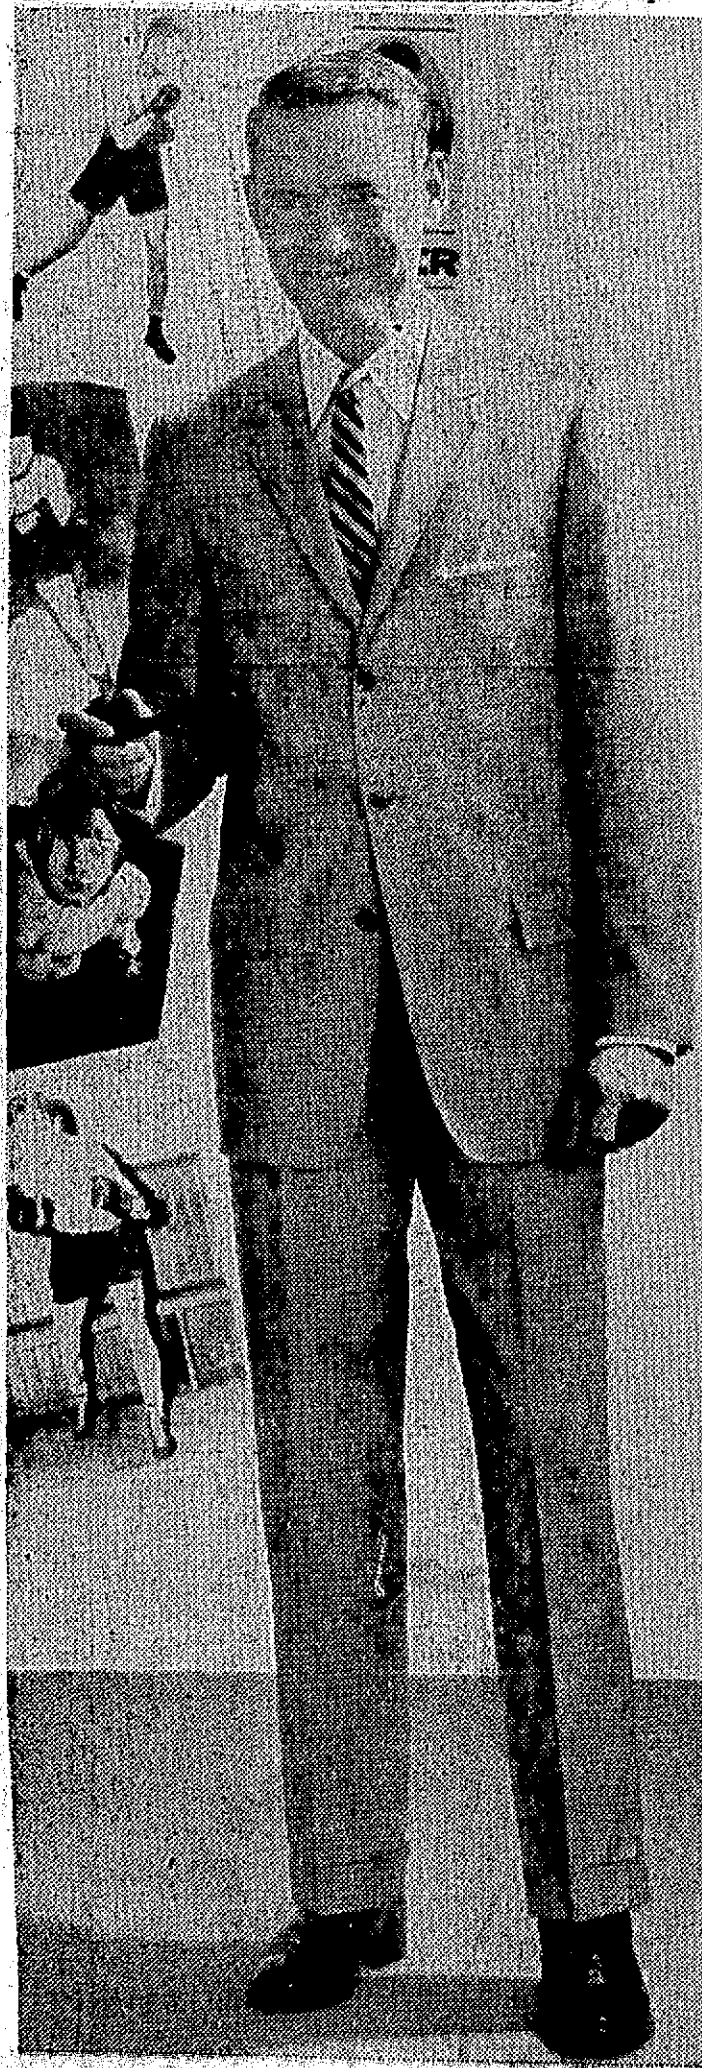

Incidentally, wash-wear lines are available in both slacks and jackets this season. Thanks to test-tube fabrics and science-treated natural fabrics such as cotton and clever blendings, both jackets and slacks in these fibers can be dunked in suds, rinsed and hung to dry, for quick freshening.

Empire length jackets cover coordinated Empire gowns to create the look of an ensemble. This short jacket is also new as an at-home robelet.
